Dear David,

Thank you for THE RESPONSES. It's a very exciting piece. I do feel that it needs to have something more clear happening in the first section of the script. I felt lost until the exchanges between the Rabbi and the Scribe began.

As I told, your wife, I'd like to hold on to MOMENTS OF THE WANDERING JEW for a few more months if you don't need the copy. I was tied up in organizing the readings, and will be away for July and August (although I will try to get to it during July), so I can't guarantee that I'll read it before September. If that's a problem, please call my service at 869-3050.

I'd also like to suggest that you submit THE RESPONSES to Ensemble Studio Theatre for their One-Act play festival (called the Marathon) which happens every spring.

Good luck to you, and thanks for your patience.

Have a good summer--

Leslie B. Goldstein
