BEN
SONNENBERG - 1

Dear Ben Sonnenberg,

John Hollander suggested I send you the enclosed brief play, The Responses, for Grand Street. John told me it was one of only three American plays he had admired in the past twenty years.

The Responses has been done in New York at The American Place Theatre and The South Street Theatre.

I also enclose a xerox of a letter I received about this script from Joseph Chaikin of the Open Theatre.

A playwright's natural readership is, I suppose, actors. I'm not sure what it means for him to seek other readers, but Grand Street seems clearly aimed at the sorts of readers I would like to have.

Sincerely yours,
David Cole

Dear Mr Cole,

I'm afraid "The Responses" (effective though it may well be on stage) isn't suitable for so resolutely profane (or mundane) a magazine as ours. Thank you very much for sending it, however, and please forgive my long delay in responding.

Yours,

Mr David Cole
