Dear Woody,

This is the script that Joe Chaikin suggested I send to you, and which I phoned you about the other afternoon.

The play had a staged reading at the South Street Theatre last spring. But the reaction that, apart from Joe's, has so far meant most to me is the enclosed letter from David Warrilow.

Yours,

David Cole

Dear Robert,

Sorry we didn't get to work on the script of my Wandering Jew play over this past two weeks while I was in New York.

I'm going back to New Haven now. But I will be in and out of New York throughout August, so if you develop some free time and would like to do some work on the script in preparation for the (January?) NYTW staged reading, please give me a call in New Haven. I'm almost always at one or the other of the 2 phone numbers below; I put the machine on in whichever city I'm in.

Best,

David Cole
